Bishop's Lodge employees receive awards

Santa Fe, NM – Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa employees have been awarded honors from the New Mexico Restaurant Association and the New Mexico Lodging Association.

At a recent awards event, the NM Restaurant Association named Banquet Captain Bruce Bliss "Employee of the Year." Also, Banquet Manager Claudia Francis was nominated for Manager of the Year.

In addition, the NM Lodging Association, which has 1,000 members, honored three Bishop's Lodge employees at their May 4 awards event. They are:

- Front Desk Manager Stuart Clark placed third for "Front Desk Employee of the Year."
- Accounts Payable Administrator Denise Novitzke received honorable mention for "Administrative Employee of the Year."
- Grounds Engineer James Salazar received honorable mention for "Engineering Employee of the Year."

"We provide extensive training in customer service, and the tools so our employees can develop relationships with our guests," says Managing Director Rich Verruni. "Every staff person is important here. We are all the caretakers of this historic resort. It's a special place."

The Bishop's Lodge Ranch Resort & Spa is a classic, historic destination resort minutes from downtown Santa Fe. Ranked by Travel & Leisure magazine as one of America's premier retreats, the Bishop's Lodge Resort & Spa offers resort-style family vacations, weddings, and conference facilities.
